Kölner Agate burnisher

Agate is a semi-precious stone, which consists of certain siliceous materials. There are different kinds of colourings of agate. Each colour looks different and is therefore unique. The burnishers are suitable for all leaf metals that can be processed with the poliment gilding technique. Before you begin with polishing, you must peel off the surface of the stone (viz. it should be matted). Because the polishing stones are highly sensitive, it is recommended to keep them in our Kölner Brush Roll so that they can't be scratched or damaged.

Agate:

- siliceous material
- different colourings
- enclosed in metal ferrule

Handle:

- varnished
